A WEEK IN ESPERANTOLAND.

Esperanto Summer School, Bournemouth,

In 1915 a highly successful “Summer School” was held in Edinburgh, and the twenty-five students who took part were unanimous in hoping that the experiment would be repeated. We are therefore glad to announce that a week’s “Summer School” has been arranged for the end of September, and we strongly recommend all who can do so to attend. By living together for a week under one roof, enjoying studies and meals and rambles in common, they will find splendid opportunities for improving their practical knowledge of the language.

The syllabus embodies an intensive study course for learners, and a series of lectures in Esperanto for more advanced students. The lecturers will be W. A. Gething, D.B.E.A., C.E.T.D., and M. C. Butler. A large part of each day will be set apart for rambles and excursions. In the evenings there will be Esperanto songs and games.

The School will be held at “Loughtonhurst,” West Cliff Gardens, Bournemouth. This is famous throughout Britain as a first-class Food Reform Boarding Establishment, and is a favourite place for such gatherings. Those attending will enjoy reform diet at its best. Bournemouth itself is one of the finest holiday resorts in the South of England.

The inclusive cost for the week, from tea-time, 24th September, to breakfast, 1st October, is £3, of which 10/- should be prepaid when joining. As accommodation is limited to 36 students, it is advisable to book at once. Address fees and all correspondence to the organiser, Mr. W. A. Gething, 27 Durbar Road, Luton.

TO PROPAGANDISTS.

“I.L.” Special Issue.

The September International Language will be a special propaganda number for the opening of the autumn classes. It will contain articles on the practical utility of Esperanto, a summary of the progress of the movement throughout the world, a list of classes in Britain, and a report of the Danzig Congress.

Orders for extra copies must be received by 1st September. Price (for 2 dozen or over) 1½d. per copy, post free.

Group secretaries and Class leaders: here is your chance!
HOW TO KEEP UP CLASS ATTENDANCE

A Hint!

The following appeared in our issue of August, 1924.

Dr. Lovell in Amerika Esperantisto describes a plan which he finds marvellously efficacious:

Advertise to give 24 lessons free, penalising absentees, and rewarding attenders. Each entrant pays 10/- deposit. At each attendance the learner is paid 6 pence. If he misses half of the lessons he thus receives 6/- back, and loses 4/-; if he attends all the lessons he receives 12/-, which includes 2/- bonus for good attendance. The teacher may possibly find himself slightly out of pocket at the end of the course, but absences through weather, illness, etc., usually pay the bonuses.

The plan seems excellent. Has it been tried in England? Or Scotland? Reports would be much appreciated.

NEW CLASS TEXT-BOOK.

An improved edition of First Steps is ready for the press, but will not appear for some time. Meantime the Linguaphone Institute have produced another book by the same author, consisting of the 30 grammatical lessons from the Linguaphone Esperanto course, pages on pronunciation, a list of the affixes, and the table of correlatives. This will be priced at sixpence, and be on sale about the end of August, under the title ROSTON'S RAPID ESPERANTO COURSE. A Key to the exercises is printed separately, and may be obtained for sixpence. This book will certainly be largely used in this winter's courses. Order from the B.E.A.

CYCLISTS AND MOTORISTS.

Esperantists who possess a cycle, motor-car, boat, or aeroplane, will be glad to know that in response to several requests the B.E.A. has just brought out an Esperanto Pennant (8" x 4"), with white corner and green star, price 1/6, double bunting, and strong. It is easily visible, but neat and unobtrusive, and should be very popular. Show your colours.

"ESPERANTO-MONDO."

This is the name of a new monthly in Esperanto, dealing with literature, technics, and science. Subscription 8/6 per annum, post free, from the B.E.A.

Remembering the fate of Bela Mondo, Universo, Literatura Mondo, and other magazines, one wonders whether the Esperanto world will give this magazine the support they withheld from the previous attempts to found a high-class literary magazine. We admire the high courage of the publisher. He has our best wishes for success. We heartily recommend the magazine, and hope that members will send us many subscriptions.

"KRISTANA REVUO."

There lies before us the first number of Kristana Revuo, which is a kind of Christian "Review of Reviews" of an undenominational character. This adventure of faith is launched by our member, Miss F. H. Hanbury. It deserves the active support of all interested. It is well printed, and in good Esperanto. Subscription, 1/3 for six numbers, post free. Obtainable through the B.E.A.

KRONIKO FEDERACIA.

Esperantistoj en Devon, Cornwall, Dorset, kaj Somerset, kiuj volas partopreni la agadon de la Federacio, sin konigui al la sekretario.

West Midland. La kvara Konferenco okazos en Kenilworth, sabaton, 27 Ag., je 3.0 en "The Motorists' Retreat," Teo. 5.0. Oni vizitis la Kastelon Biletoj (2/-), kaj informoj pri logado, ĉe S-ro McIntyre, 51 Brunswick St., Leamington Spa.

KRONIKO GRUPA.

Letchworth. The Citiian reports a Settlement Fair, at which the Esperanto Class staged an edifying little scene, representing a "Packenferenco" that proved abortive through misunderstandings, till Miss Esperanto (Miss F. M. Bartholomew) poured words charged with intelligence and ending with "o! upon the troubled waters." Congratulations to Mrs. Deuchan, the author, and to all concerned.

Nottingham. The Rapid Tutors' Institute, Clumber Chambers, Thurland St., announces Esperanto classes under Mr. G. O. Crawley on Tuesday nights, 8.0.

KRONIKO FAFA.

Co-operators. The Report of the International Co-operative Women's Committee (1924-1927) states that correspondence between Guild branches and individual Guildswomen in different countries is in several cases conducted in Esperanto, and that several new links have been established in this way. A proposal to run an Esperanto News-sheet is thought to be premature. Two songs in Esperanto have been published, and two songs will be published, for 2d. post free (100, 6/6), from Miss Enfield, 38 Downshire Hill, Hampstead, N.W. 3.

Mr. C. Bardsley, 42 Westbourne St., Oldham, is founding a Young Co-operators' Esperanto League. Subscription, 1/-.
